Enkimo Wrestling. Next to gambling the Eskimo men like to wrestle. The usual way of do-ing this is a test rather of strength than skill. The wrestlers sit down on the floor or in any convenient place side by side and facing in opposite directions, say, with right elbows touching. Then they lock arms, and each strives to straighten out the other's Cleaning Light Fur. One who says she has tried it recom-mends naphtha for cleaning light fur. She says: Pour naphtha over the fur, then fluff and pat the article until the soil has been worked out, and when this is done press the naphtha out by drawing the hand firmly over the fur. Then shake and bang in the air to dry. Be careful of fire.

Wily Costigan. Casey—Costigan got his life insured for tin cints.

Conroy-How wus that? Casey-He borrowed tin cints av th' foreman, and the foreman won't put him on a dangerous job as long as he owes him tin cints!—Puck.

His Embarrassment. Brackett-They say you are financially embarrassed. Do you owe a very large amount?

Crackett-I don't owe anything, but there are several people who owe me, and I haven't the courage to ask for it. -Boston Transcript.

In 1658 Captain Thomas Clarke, in company with John Winthrop and others, put in operation an "iron worke" at New Haven, Conn. This enterprise embraced a blast furnace and a refinery

"Dear me!" rejoined Miss Cayenne.

"I was troubled for about seven years with my stomach and in bed balf my time." says E. Demick, Somerville, Ind. "I spent about $1,000 and never could get anything to help me until I tried Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. I have taken a few bottles and am actirely well." MEDICINAL. MEDICINAL

Digests what you Dyspepsia Cure

Indigestion effects so many organs besides the stomach that the nature of the disease is sometimes mistaken. Headaches, giddiness, and so-called heart trouble are usually caused by indigestion alone. In such cases it is the stomach trouble which must be cured. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure restores health by digesting your food while the stomach rests. Dieting doesn't mean rest but starvation. You should relieve the stomach without weakening the system by denying yourself proper food. With a sound stomach your other complaints will soon disappear. "After seven years' suffering from indigestion" writes Mrs. Annie Alcorn of Merideth, Pa. "I was cured by three bottles of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure."
